“Cara Jensen has been one of the most successful advocates and neighborhood leaders in the 8th Ward.”

- Alderman Stephen Conway

“I’ve worked with Cara over the past six years – she’s always been a very conscientious and dedicated community volunteer.”

- Rep. Robin Wright-Jones (D-63)

“She is plugged into the community, is very dedicated, and always follows up very well. She has wonderful enthusiasm and a great ability to reach out to people.”

- Floyd Wright, president,
Southwest Garden Neighborhood Association

“In working with Cara Jensen, I find her to be a very thorough and concise individual, true to her word, and a loyal and dedicated community advocate.”

- Ben Phillips, former chair,
8th Ward Independent Democratic Association

“She is a go-to, can-do person.”

- Susan Turk, St. Louis Public Schools activist

“Cara and I sat on the SNIA board for a year, she has always been helpful in the neighborhood with me, and I feel comfortable in how she works for the community.”

- Georgia Wells, community activist

- 1> A woman who advocates the wishes of her people to their elected officials.
- 2> A woman who educates her people on ballot initiatives and policy objectives.
- 3> A woman who inspires a passion for the democratic process in her people.

My name is Cara Jensen, and I am running for Democratic Committeewoman of the 8th Ward in the City of St. Louis, Missouri. My husband and I live in Shaw, and our two children attend St. Louis Public Schools. I am actively involved in the 8th Ward Independent Democratic Association, currently serving on the board. I have tackled tough situations in our ward, and I work diligently to improve the quality of life in our area.

As Committeewoman, I plan to use my energy to create a bridge between elected Democratic officials and you, the people they represent.

As President of the Shaw Neighborhood Improvement Association, I led the executive committee in creation of the Shaw Helping Hands Grant which promotes inclusion, diversity, and pride in the Shaw neighborhood. I also entered into a pilot program with the City of St. Louis' Restorative Justice Program in order to keep our young people out of the criminal system and help them reconnect with the community.

Mattie Moore, Former Vice-Chair of the Missouri Democratic Party, and Rep. Robin Wright-Jones (D-63) with Cara Jensen

I believe that a quality and equitable public education is fundamental to a democratic and prosperous St. Louis. I am working to increase the proactive involvement of St. Louis City in support of our elected school board. I also believe it is vital to give the people of St. Louis a voice in what happens with our childrens' education.

Safety in the 8th Ward is also important to me. I have spent time working productively in this area over the past several years, and partnered with St. Louis Aldermen, the Circuit Attorney's Office, St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department, and the 22nd Judicial Circuit Court to create a Court Watch program in Shaw.
